Call for Public Comments: Council President, Dave Williams, opened the floor for any public comments. No comments were made at that time.

Unfinished Business:

WEBSITE CHANGE

Aly Hickman, Clerk-Treasurer, discussed a free website option available through IOT. Invoice Cloud, the Utility payment processing system, could still be utilized. Aly requested approval from Town Council to continue moving forward with the new website option.

Motion: Bruce Burtner made a motion to switch over to the website offered through IOT for the town website. Randy Bruder seconded. Motion passed 5-0.

UTILITY SERVICE BOARD APPOINTMENT

Erick Smith, USB President, presented a request to appoint Matt Rairdon as the third member of the Utility Service Board.

Motion: Bruce Burtner made a motion to appoint Matt Rairdon to the Utility Service Board. Randy Bruder seconded. Motion passed 5-0.

Matt was sworn into office by Aly Hickman.

New business/Other business:

INSURANCE PREMIUMS DUE

Aly Hickman discussed a premium due for insurance on the new Police Vehicle, along with the premium due for the town's Professional Liability policy.

Motion: Bruce Burtner made a motion to approve the insurance renewal payments for the Professional Liability policy and addition of the new police vehicle. Randy Bruder seconded. Motion passed 5-0.

Department/Board and Commissions Reports:

UTILITIES

Earl Parsons noted that Mint City, the tree trimming/removal service, would be back that week to continue working.

MUNICIPAL CONSULTANT

Jeff Wolfe sent a draft of a letter of intent for Thorntown to participate in the discussion regarding the Sewer District to Amy Nooning, Town Attorney. The letter of intent commits the town to be open to the conversation and part of the application process. It does not commit the town to participating in the Sewer District. Jeff asked for Council approval for Dave Williams to sign off on the letter upon its completion.

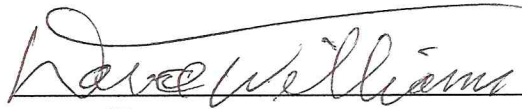

Motion: Bruce Burtner made a motion to allow Dave Williams to sign a letter of intent for the Sewer District discussions. Randy Bruder seconded. Motion passed 5-0.

QUOTE FROM NEWBY EXCAVATING

Dave Williams presented a $6,000 quote from Newby Excavating to put a road at the well site. Bub Newby discussed actions he would like to take at the well site. Dave Williams noted he called and talked to Mr. Bechtold, property owner donating land to the town, and received permission to have Newby Excavating remove the trees on the property.

Motion: Bruce Burtner made a motion to approve the $6,000 quote from Newby Excavating to put the road to the well sites. Randy Bruder seconded. Motion passed 5-0.

Adjournment: With no additional business to discuss, Randy Brude made a motion to close the meeting at 7:18 PM. Bruce Burtner seconded. Motion passed 5-0.
